HARMONY IN THE FEELINGS

Do you know what happened the second Class we had here in the Shrine? A blessed young couple came to me one day at the Figueroa Hotel. The minute they came near me, I felt this peculiar feeling. I waited, and they sat down. Well, what in the deuce is this? They were both apparently happy and harmonious, and yet I felt this thing. So in a few moments it came out. He said,

"You know, we've been talking it over, and I think we're standing in each other's way. I think we better separate and then perhaps we won't interfere with each other." I nearly exploded. (laughter) I said,

"For heaven's sake, get that nonsense out of your head! Why, you Dear, Blessed Ones, if ever two people were brought together to work together, you're it! Now don't you see that that's a dastardly sinister thing that is trying to separate you so it can get the goat of both of you?"

"Why, do you think so?"

"I know it! Now dismiss that thing once and forever from your minds and go on, you precious two people, and win your Victory; for you'll not win it separate. You'll win it together." (applause)

Well, I'm telling you, it was just like a vicious cloud was lifted from them. You could see the change in their eyes, the change in their expression, their feeling. That thing, just like a blanket, had been thrown over them; but it was acting in such a cunning manner, apparently harmonious, that it was getting them just as sure as the world—and would have if they hadn't come to me.

I tell you, Dear Hearts, that is the thing that is acting in mankind all over America and the Students everywhere. If it can't reach them any other way, then it tries to get them fighting each other. Don't you succumb to it. Dear, Dear People, can't we afford to be very patient with each other? Look how patient the Great Ones have been to us. Look how the Higher Mental Body has waited century after century, holding every good and perfect thing ready to release into our life and experience; but because we were too darn stubborn to give it a little attention, well, we just took the consequences.

Dear Ones, oh! face yourself! Don't be proud. Don't be ashamed, Dear, Blessed Students, to face yourself and clean out everything that's there that needs it. If you knew how we take inventory of ourselves—and I'm telling you that anything that gets in there, it gets out! You can't have Happiness and Freedom as long as you blame anything else for anything. You have All-Power to keep yourselves harmonized; but as long as you listen to fool silly gossip and falsehood—and ninety percent of the stuff that's spread is falsehood—why, you'll be in turmoil and distress. I tell you, Dear Ones, you have to be good and firm against those things; but it's worth it.
